IQ Winnersh, READING, UK – 05 June 2015. Invenio Business Solutions are pleased to announce the appointment of their new Global Client Director, Vijay Reddy. Vijay's appointment will help establish the newly created Customer Management Zone within Invenio. Vijay will be responsible for managing and improving Invenio's customer relationships across all lines of business and technology deliveries, he will also be responsible for overseeing Invenio's strategic accounts.

Vijay brings with him over 25 years' rich experience within global SAP consulting, 15 of those at SAP itself where he was head of Global Delivery, managing a team of around 2000 people across India, China and South America. He has also previously held positions with DEC, IBM and HCLTech where he managed a global team of 4,000+ consultants. Vijay has great experience in setting up and managing global consulting units to deliver IT services to customers across the world especially on SAP platform.

Commenting on his appointment, Vijay said: "I have been watching Invenio as an amazing success story over the last few years, it is well known that Invenio have a team of enormously talented SAP experts that deliver excellent SAP services and I am pleased to join the team to help increase customer relationships and help them build a better future".

Invenio's Managing Director, Partho Bhattacharya, concluded. "We are delighted and extremely excited to welcome Vijay to the Invenio team. Vijay will hold an important role as we go through a period of further growth and transformation. Vijay has a long track record within SAP consulting and is a well-known figure within the space. With his huge library of knowledge and skills, we will no doubt see a massive impact not only internally but for our customers as well".
